

C GRADE Captain's Report

The C grade this season finished in fifth spot on the ladder, four points and percentage out of the final four.

Two bad loses early in the season to Belair and Morphy Parks, when we were in a position to win both games, cost us a finals berth and a crack at the flag. Looking back though, we were probably just off the top pace, but who knows what can happen in a final.

Our batting in general was much improved. The batting yips of previous years seemed to be gone. Just about everyone chipped in at times. Paz and Grant only played two and four games respectively due to injury, but to their credit Dom, Phil, Greeny and Flam stepped up when they got the opportunity, all making around 200 plus for the year. Others such as Chad and Moorie did well with some great under pressure lower order partnerships on occasions.

The bowling however was tough work at times, twice being cut up like a band saw by Div 1 batsmen who were playing well below their grade. Constant dropped catches, which seems to be how it is with this group, doesn't help either. At least we can laugh about them over a few beers.

Chad had a great season. He was consistently our best bowler and match winner. He should be very proud of how well he bowled to all types of opposition batsmen under trying situations at times. Again Joel, Greenie and Moorie did well, all having a couple of boomer games. Unfortunately Huckie had an injury plagued year and we missed his explosive, "rough them up" over's.

On the other hand we introduced a number of new players to the club who also did well.

Oli Byne was a breath of youth and life into the side which we desperately needed. He was improving each game and took some excellent wickets with some great balls. Unfortunately he has now headed back to the UK and I'm not sure we'll see him again. He is a great lad and we'll welcome him back any time.

Others who were new to the club this year and played for the team were Nathan Nemes (3 games avg 23 with the bat), Nick Brazil (3 games, thigh and calf injury first game), Anthony Martin (2 games bat and ball), Dillon Tee and Nathan Price (one game each).

Some of the season highlights were:

- Chad's hat-trick versus Plympton in round 1.
- Chad's 5/49, Chad & Flam's 83 run 7th wicket partnership versus Morphy Park in round 4.
- Flam's 80, Phil's 71, Greenie's 5/52 versus Keswick in round 6.
- Moorie's 4/20 versus Mitchell Park in round 7.
- Moorie's 5/21 versus South Road in round 8.
- Chad's 5/46 versus Cavaliers in round 9.

Andrew Conley
C Grade Captain

Finally I would personally like to thank, the other captains Sarg and Mary, as well as Paz for all their help on selection, Jill for entering the scores each game, Dom and Joel, for stepping up to captain the side when required and Bung our Team Manager for always being there each week to support and bring the beers.

To all the others guys who played in the team this year, thanks for the good times and having a crack with your mates.

Thanks again,

Win.
