

C GRADE Captain's Report

Hello to all and firstly I would like to thank all who played in the C's this season. We finished bottom this time but I think now this side has had time to gel with the club we can hit the ground running next year. Having captained the C's before I thought I was well aware of the challenges that lay ahead, boy was I wrong! With the addition of 9 Sharks, 5 Cavs and some new blokes and some unfortunate mis-information, it was a difficult start to the season. We ended up keeping most of these players and it is now that I should thank Greeny, Ange and Brett Bryson for their much needed support. I know the selection process can be difficult and I must thank the other captains for their support, Dave, Winner, Ash and Tonks. With their help I believe we have presented these new guys a fresh start to their careers and a club environment to be proud of.

What was initially a big challenge became a great opportunity. For me personally, to show these guys what playing for Warradale was all about was a great thrill. Firstly trying to win games and sessions of cricket and secondly, and equally important, having a laugh and a beer after. We have picked up a great bunch of lads, and I'm sure we will see them at training and on the park next season.

To my thank yous:

- My beautiful and talented wife, Jill, you rock! Your efforts with the secretarial role plus the scorebooks was awesome.
- To the committee, chairman of selectors, the helpers and our way cool president Greeny, your efforts and style have helped keep this club moving forward, well done.
- To all the new Warradale players who are a terrific bunch of lads and a pleasure to play cricket with: J Fergs, the Jones boy, Dutchy, Panther, Stevie J, Azza, Troy Spanton, Barman and the lion hearted Brian Beefy Mildren, and our wicket keeper/opener, young Hamish Ferguson - second highest run scorer, a terrific lad with great composure, whom I saw learn a few cricket lessons this year - well played.

The batting trophy was won by J Ferguson who had a great year - 445 at 45 is outstanding.

Brian Mildren and Brett Bryson shared the bowling trophy with 16 wickets each - well done lads.

The captains trophy is always difficult and this year is no exception. The efforts and improvement of Troy Spanton got him over the line, he is always willing to learn, trains the house down and always puts his hand up to help. Blokes like this are gold, well done Troy.

That's all folks, see you next season.
Jason
